

2017 National Police Shooting Championships

Law Enforcement Equipment Expo

Albuquerque, New Mexico

Monday September 18th through Wednesday September 20th, 2017

The Twenty Seven NRA National Police Shooting Championships will take place in Albuquerque, New Mexico at the city's Shooting Range Park complex from the 18th of September through the 20th. Known by many competitors as NPSC or the Police Nationals, this three-day international shooting championship attracts law enforcement officers and armed security professionals representing local, state, and federal agencies from across the United States and from numerous countries around the world. Matches are held that test officers' handgun and shotgun accuracy and handling skills in this one of a kind competitive based training events.

As a benefit to our program supporters and as a service to our competitors, we began a law enforcement equipment exposition with display space limited to our major match sponsors in gratitude for their financial support. This has provided our sponsors a rare opportunity to meet one-on-one with competitive shooters, law enforcement supervisors, and firearm instructors, all who are frequently the personnel within their agency that recommend or approve law enforcement product purchases.

Over the years, the NPSC Exposition has been so successful that other law enforcement and general product vendors have requested to be able to be a part of the exposition to promote their products and inform NPSC attendees about what goods and services they can provide.

While program supporters still receive priority, we offer a limited number of spaces to other vendors. If you would like to take part in this unique opportunity please submit the Exhibitor Registration Form or contact the NRA Law Enforcement Division for more information and to learn about sponsorship opportunities.

General Exhibitor Information
